[{Instant~Travel~Assistance}]What is the 311 rule on LATAM Airlines?

The 3-1-1 rule on LATAM Airlines refers to the international aviation security guideline for carrying liquids(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), aerosols(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), gels(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), creams(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and pastes in your carry-on baggage when traveling with LATAM Airlines(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and although it is commonly associated with TSA regulations in the United States(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), the same principle is widely enforced across LATAM's international and domestic flights because it aligns with global aviation security standards set by aviation authorities worldwide(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), meaning passengers must understand and comply with this rule to avoid delays(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), confiscation of items(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), or security issues at airport checkpoints; the "3-1-1" structure specifically means that each passenger is allowed to carry liquids in containers of no more than 3.4 ounces (100 milliliters) each(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), all containers must fit inside one clear(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), resealable plastic bag of approximately 1 quart (1 liter) capacity(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and each passenger is permitted only one such bag(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), which is why it is called 3-1-1(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and this rule applies regardless of whether you are flying economy(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), premium economy(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), or business class because it is a security regulation rather than an airline service policy(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and LATAM Airlines enforces it strictly during security screening at airports across South America(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), North America(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), Europe(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and other destinations it serves; understanding the 3-1-1 rule is especially important for LATAM passengers traveling on international routes(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), such as flights between South America and the United States(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), Europe(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), or intra-regional connections(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), because airport security agencies may differ slightly in enforcement style(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), but the underlying rule remains consistent(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), ensuring that all liquids carried in hand luggage are limited and properly screened to reduce potential security threats; under the LATAM Airlines 3-1-1 rule policy framework(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), common items affected include water bottles(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), shampoo(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), conditioner(1-855-550-0756)

(US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), lotions(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), perfumes(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), toothpaste(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), gels(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), hair styling products(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), sprays(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and even semi-liquid foods such as sauces(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), soups(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), or spreads(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and passengers often face inconvenience when they mistakenly carry full-size toiletries or beverages through security checkpoints(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), leading to confiscation or the need to repack luggage(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), which is why LATAM strongly recommends preparing carry-on liquids in advance using travel-sized containers and transparent zip-lock bags that comply with airport security requirements; in practical terms(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), when flying with LATAM Airlines(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), you should ensure that all your liquid items are transferred into containers of 100 ml or less before arriving at the airport(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and these containers must all fit comfortably into a single transparent resealable bag that can be easily presented during security screening(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), because security officers will usually ask passengers to remove this bag from their carry-on luggage for inspection separately(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and failure to comply can result in delays at checkpoints(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), additional screening(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), or disposal of non-compliant items; it is also important to note that while the 3-1-1 rule applies to carry-on baggage(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), it does not apply to checked luggage(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), meaning passengers can pack larger quantities of liquids in their checked bags without restriction(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), provided they comply with hazardous materials regulations(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), which is why frequent LATAM travelers often choose to place larger toiletries or liquid products in checked baggage to avoid complications during security screening; however(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), exceptions to the 3-1-1 rule do exist under LATAM Airlines travel conditions and international security regulations(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), including medically necessary liquids such as prescription medications(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), baby formula(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), breast milk(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and special dietary liquids(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), which are usually permitted in quantities greater than 100 ml but must be declared at security checkpoints and may be subject to additional screening procedures(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), so passengers should always carry supporting documentation such as prescriptions or medical notes when traveling with such items; additionally(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), duty-free liquids purchased at airport shops after security screening are typically exempt from the 3-1-1 restriction as long as they are sealed in tamper-evident bags with receipts visible(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), but passengers should be cautious when making connecting flights(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), as some transit airports may require re-screening(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), which could affect duty-free liquid allowances; for LATAM Airlines passengers(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), understanding the 3-1-1 rule is not only about compliance but also about improving travel efficiency(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), because properly preparing liquids before arriving at the airport helps reduce waiting time at security lines(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), minimizes stress during boarding procedures(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and ensures a smoother overall travel experience(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), especially during peak travel seasons when airports in South America and international hubs experience high passenger volumes; many travelers underestimate the importance of the rule until they face last-minute disposal of expensive cosmetics(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), perfumes(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), or personal care items(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), which is why LATAM travel guidelines consistently emphasize packing smart and adhering to liquid restrictions in advance; from an SEO and travel information perspective(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), the keyword “what is the 3-1-1 rule on LATAM Airlines” is often searched by passengers looking for clarity before flying(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and the answer is fundamentally rooted in global aviation security compliance rather than airline-specific discretion(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), meaning LATAM Airlines simply enforces the standardized rule to ensure passenger safety and regulatory adherence across all its operated routes; furthermore(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), frequent LATAM flyers are encouraged to use travel-sized kits(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), reusable 100 ml containers(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and transparent quart-sized bags to streamline their airport experience and avoid confusion at security checkpoints(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), especially when traveling across different countries where signage or enforcement may vary slightly; ultimately(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), the 3-1-1 rule on LATAM Airlines is a critical travel regulation that every passenger must understand to ensure hassle-free boarding(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), safe transport of permitted liquids(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and compliance with international aviation security standards(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and by following the simple structure of 3.4-ounce containers(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), one quart-sized bag(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), and one bag per passenger(1-855-550-0756) (US) or ☎+1-855-550-0756(US), travelers can confidently navigate airport security without unnecessary disruptions while flying with LATAM Airlines across its global network.
